

Nettie L. Russell Taken by Death

Died April 22, 1963 Monday

Miss Nettie L. Russell, 35 River St., Carbondale, one of the city's oldest residents, died Monday at Carbondale General Hospital where she had been a patient since 1957. She was 96.

She was born at the Russell homestead in Fell Twp., which was built by her parents, the late James and Margaret Locke Russell, in 1843. A resident of Carbondale 50 years, Miss Russell was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Carbondale, and its women's association.

Surviving are two nephews, Russell Jones, San Diego, Calif., and Maurice Russell, Largo, Fla.; four nieces, Mrs. Margaret MacMillan and Mrs. Walter Powell, both of Carbondale; Mrs. Albert Winter, Jermyn, and Miss Eleanor Jones, Buffalo, N.Y.

The funeral will be from the McGranaghan Funeral Home, 62 N. Main St., Carbondale, Thursday at 11 a.m. Rev. Arthur Menzeley, Berean Baptist Church, and Rev. William Haussler, First Methodist Church, Jermyn, will officiate. Interment, Maplewood Cemetery, Carbondale. Friends may call Wednesday 2 to 4, 7 to 9 p.m. Arrangements, Fuller E. Blickens, Clarks Summit.

Nieces, Nephews Share in Will

Nieces and nephews of Nettie L. Russell, Carbondale, will benefit under the terms of her will filed for probate on Wednesday.

Her nieces, Eleanor Jones and Margaret MacMillan, were left her residuary estate which consists of $500 in personal property and $2,000 in real estate at 35 River St., Carbondale, according to the probate application.

She directed, in her will, that the estate is to be sold with the proceeds to be divided into seven shares to her brother, William, and his wife, Ora, or their survivors; Eleanor Jones, Margaret Millan, Louise Winter and Helen Powell, nieces; Lois Russell, widow of Spencer Russell, and Maurice Russell, a nephew, and his wife, Beth.

Cash bequests of $25 were provided for James, Robert, Donald and Russell Powell, children of Walter Powell, and household furnishings and personal effects were given to Albert and Louise Winter, Margaret MacMillan, Eleanor Jones, Walter and Helen Powell, Margaret and Elizabeth Winter, children of Albert Winter.